

“The Way” - Michelle Calder

If I should fall, into the arms of heaven
What would I miss most?
That's where I need my heart to go

If I listened to me
Deep down inside
What would I find?

I'd see the oceans, rivers, rainbows
The birds in the sky
I would hear music, when I close my eyes

And if the stars cease to shine
I'd still want you by my side

If I should fall, prey to the darkness lurking
What would bring me round?
How could I ever find my way to light?

Hand and mind on my heart
Looking deep down inside
What would I need to find?

I'd need the oceans, rivers, rainbows
The birds that fly high
I'd sing out their music, until I am I

And if the stars cease to shine
I'd still want you by my side
I'd still want you, by my side
