
MICHELLE CALDER

“Stay”

Oooooo, oooooooo
The scent of you is still in my hair
A reminiscent air
You're on the road now, headed elsewhere
I glimpse your picture and try not to stare

It's just someone beautiful to touch
For most, it's not much
But when it's just us it's enough

Stay a little longer, just stay
The road can wait to steal you away
We're not meant for forever but that's okay
'Cause out there, we'd never make it anyway
So just stay

We push everyone else until they're gone
It never takes long Stay safe, protect our hearts, stay strong
Together alone, together withdrawn

It's just someone beautiful to touch
For most, it's not much
But when it's just us it's enough

Stay a little longer, just stay
The road can wait to steal you away
We're not meant for forever but
that's okay
'Cause out there, we'd never make
it anyway
So just stay

Beautiful soul, singularly whole
In control, it takes its toll
Beautiful soul, singularly whole
In control, it takes its toll

So stay, a little longer, just stay
The road can wait to steal you away
We're not meant for forever but
that's okay
'Cause out there, we'd never make
it anyway
So just stay a little longer, just stay
The road can wait to steal you away
We're not meant for forever but
that's okay
'Cause out there, we'd never make
it anyway
So just stay
Oooooooo
Stay...
